JEWELS WILL PLAY BASEBALL ON MAUI

Going Down On The 3rd
To Meet Team At Wailuku

The Diamond Heads will make a trip to Maui on the 3rd to stay over the Fourth, and expect to play ball while they are there. Negotiations are now in progress for a game with some picked team of the Maui Athletic Association, Wailuku, for Sunday, the 5th, and there seems little doubt that the game will be made.

At all events, the Jewels will be there, to see the other sports, and to take part if so decided before they go. Letters were sent out yesterday, in regard to this game. If it is made—and it seems assured—the lineup of the Diamonds will be: H. Williams, c.; J. Amoy and W. Chillingworth, p.; L. Crook, 1b.; S. Chillingworth, 2b.; George Clark, 3b.; R. Chillingworth, ss.; W. Chillingworth and Amoy, rf.; Sumner, cf.; Olmos, lf.

As Eddie Fernandez is to be with the soccer team at Hilo on this date, he will not be along with the ball players. Evers, the crack shortstop, is also out of the game for this occasion, and Davis cannot go, as it would involve a long leave from duty at Camp Verry.

PRINTERS PLAY MUCH BASEBALL TOMORROW

In the Press League things will be done tomorrow. Three games will be played off, and the schedule brought to within one week of completion. The Bulletins will get in strong, as they are down for two games. Morning and afternoon they will play, closing the day's sport after they have opened it. And one of the best games which should be played this season is on, as the Mercantiles and the Paradise, which have been winners so far, will cross the willow.

The first game will be in the forenoon, scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, between the Bulletins and the Tigers. This is to be followed at the usual hour in the afternoon by a game between the Mercantiles and the Paradise, and the Bulletins and Asteroids will close the program, at a time which remains to be seen. The Printers are hurrying to close their schedule as soon after the first of July as possible.

SOME GOOD ONES OUT OF PUUNENE TENNIS

Wailuku, Maui, June 26.—On August 12th at the Puunene courts only the finals of the annual (mixed doubles) tennis tournament will be played for silver cups which have been offered. As an additional attraction there will be match games between representatives of Honolulu clubs and local players.

In the drawing for the August tournament, quite a number of strong men drew blanks, owing to the few entries by the fair sex, and hence will not play. Among them were Messrs. Kumbhaar, Savage, Lindsay, and Rosecrans.

The Pala tennis club has a tournament, mixed doubles, with handicaps, in progress. There is some talk of playing the finals at Sunnyside on July Fourth.

DOG LIES IN STATE

New York, N. Y., June 16.—"Fuzzy," the little yellow Pomeranian dog owned by C. Oliver Iselin, and that gained international prominence as the mascot of the cup defender Reliance, died of a broken heart at New Rochelle.

Mrs. Iselin went to Europe several months ago, leaving "Fuzzy" with her daughter, Mrs. Phillip W. Livermore.

When "Fuzzy" saw Mrs. Iselin leaving he chased her automobile down the road, and when he could not catch it turned back and became despondent.

Mrs. Livermore left for Europe on June 3, and "Fuzzy," finding himself deserted by his last friend, refused to eat. His death followed.

"Fuzzy" lay in state at Mrs. Livermore's home in a white velvet coffin, draped with the Reliance flag and Union Jack for a day, and then he was buried in Iselin's rose garden.

The St. Louis club has released Pitcher Rhodes and Infielder Charles to Cincinnati.

To Resume Baseball At Aala Park Grounds Tomorrow

The Aala Park grounds will be the scene of some great baseball tomorrow afternoon, when the Palamas and the Alohas face each other, and the Kaala and the C. A. C.'s clash.

All over the city people have been talking nothing but baseball lately, and there is no doubt that there will be a great crowd to witness the two games.

There was nothing doing last Sunday at the Aala Park grounds, owing to the fact that the funeral of the late Prince David Kawanakoa was held on that day.

Both the games that will take place tomorrow afternoon are worth seeing, as it was the Palamas and the Chinese Alohas that played the famous seventeen-inning game during 1907. And no one can tell but that the Chinese Alohas may wallop the Palamas. The Alohas are able to deliver the goods, and with such stars as Brito, Albert Akana, and Kaia in their line the Palamas have to play ball from the beginning to the end.

The second game between the Kaalas and the C. A. C.'s is another one worth seeing, as it is up to the C. A. C.'s to beat the Kaalas this time. The Kaala nine is tied with the Palamas in the first series.

The lineup of the two games will be as follows:

Palamas—Hoopli, c.; Espinda, p.; Correa, 1b.; Honan, 2b.; Kealoa, 3b.; Bailey, Clement, ss.; Walker, cf.; Jim, lf.; Zerbe, rf.

Chinese Alohas—H. Brito, c.; Kaia, p.; Townsend, 1b.; Kaia, 2b.; A. Akana, 3b.; Wong, ss.; Ho Lin, lf.; F. Zerbe, cf.; McShane, rf.

Kaala A. C.—Makanui, Butler, c.; Butler, Medeiros, p.; Kuukini, 1b.; Ordenstein, 2b.; Freitas, 3b.; S. Parker, Kaowai, ss.; B. Parker, cf.; Hoopli, rf.

C. A. C.—Chi Bul, c.; John Lo, p.; Muiumui, 1b.; Hong Chack, 2b.; Ed. Ayau, 3b.; Sing Chong, ss.; Tin Yet, lf.; W. Ayau, cf.; Mon Yin, rf.

The first game starts promptly at 1:30 p. m.

Hert Bowers, official umpire.

Cincinnati fans have gone wild over the success of the Reds, who are now a close second to Chicago. They have good reason to exult, for it has been many years since the Reds were contenders for the leadership. John Gaskel, who succeeded Ned Hanlon, is getting the credit for the surprising showing of the Cincinnati club. But may not Hanlon be entitled to some of the glory? He worked hard for two years to give Cincinnati a winner, and you know a successful baseball club, like Rome, is not built in a day.

Burns has pitched four splendid games against the Sox this season, and in none of them have the Nationals scored more than one run. So what chance did Burns have to win?—Washington Star.
